

An old empty cardboard box will provide any young child with hours of fun to explore. Providing a few felt pens, crayons, paints or gluing and sticking will allow your child to be creative and use their imagination. This is also a lovely way of making a den, using scarfs and sheets.