

Libraries Week

October 5th-10th

Does your child love reading?

What do I need to use BorrowBox?

A Bradford Libraries membership card and PIN, and an Internet connection to complete your registration.

If you need a library account, it is really simple! Just follow the link <https://www.bradford.gov.uk/libraries/library-services-online/join-the-library-form/>

Once you have downloaded your eAudiobooks and eBooks an internet connection is not required to view them

If you are using BorrowBox for the first time you will be prompted to register for an account. If you already have a BorrowBox account you will be taken straight to the main page.

BorrowBox details!

Getting started:

The easiest way to access free eBooks and eAudiobooks is through the BorrowBox app. iPhone and iPad users should download the app from the App Store, and Android users should download the app from Google Play Store.

Once you have followed the instructions and install the app choose "Bradford Libraries" from the list of libraries and then register using your library card number and your PIN.

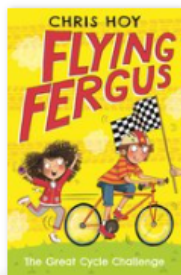

Join the Library!

What next?

Once you have installed the BorrowBox app on your device you will need to register using the following steps:

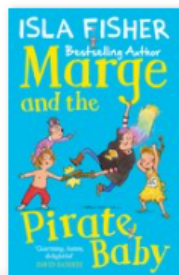

Go to the "Please select your library" option and start typing Bradford, you will need to select: Bradford Libraries and log in with your library card number and PIN.

When you submit all of this information you will be asked to "Agree" to the terms and

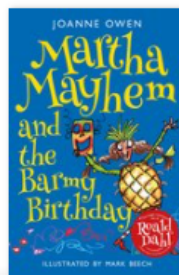

Preview Borrow

The Great Cycle Challenge
Sir Chris Hoy
Children, Children's Fiction,
Humorous Fiction
eBook — Illustrated

Preview Borrow

Marge and the Pirate Baby
Isla Fisher
Children, Children's Fiction,
Humorous Fiction
eBook — Illustrated

Preview Borrow

Martha Mayhem and the Barmy Birthday
Joanne Owen
Children, Children's Fiction,
Humorous Fiction
eBook

Preview Borrow

Cookie and the Most Annoying Boy in the World
Konnie Hug
Children, Children's Fiction,
Humorous Fiction
eBook

Preview Borrow

Eva's Journey
Judi Curtin
Children's Fiction, Young Adult Fiction
eBook — Illustrated