

Year group: Year 6 Our theme for this half term is: Ancient Egyptians

All of the homework options below are linked to either this theme or other learning from this term such as English / Maths / phonics. Pupils are expected to read their book every day and practice learning to read tricky words in addition to choosing 1 thing from the options below each week. Try to ensure you do a balance of different activities over the half term, for example maths one week, creative the next etc... Work (which can include photographs / evidence of activities or visits etc..) should be recorded in this Learning at Home book (unless it is a model).

English

- Imagine you have been on a dig; write a diary entry about your adventure.
- Choose an ancient Egyptian god or goddess and create a fact file, book, poster all about them.
- Write an ancient Egyptian themed poem.

Maths

- Research holidays to Egypt online. Budget how much it would cost to go on holiday with your family.
- Make a net pyramid.
- Draw a map of pharaoh's tomb. Write a set of instructions of how to safely get through, avoiding any traps! Think about using directional language.

Homework

- Create a painting/drawing of an ancient Egyptian scene using your choice of materials.
- Ask a family member to help you create a list with as many song titles that have the word 'river' in it.
- Write an ancient Egyptian rap or song.
- Design a piece of Egyptian jewelry.

Other

- Write a menu for an Egyptian feast. Be as creative as you like!
- Research personal hygiene practices in ancient Egypt and compare to today's.
- Create an Egyptian themed board game or card and teach family members how to play.
- Write some ancient Egyptian themed jokes and share them with your family and friends.
