Spellings at Eastwood plays a crucial role in our school life. It is a skill that is required in every subject area to support with aspects such as communication and comprehension, whether this be through discussion or a written piece. We believe that if children are confidently communicating and understanding their learning, this will lead to a more focused, happier child who will: love language; write their ideas quickly and fluently; and will be more adventurous with the words they use to express themselves. Overall, spelling is a fundamental skill that will allow our children to achieve their very best and will leave our school with the necessary skills to succeed in the future.
